

House Resolution No. 394

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri couple who have enjoyed tremendous personal success through the bonds of Holy Matrimony; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Constable commemorated the splendid occasion of their Fortieth Wedding Anniversary on February 9, 2003; and

Whereas, it was on February 9, 1963, that Kenneth Wayne Constable took the hand of his beautiful bride, Jeneve Sharon Robertson, and together they were joined in marriage before the eyes of God during a memorable double ring ceremony performed by the Reverend J.T. Shine at the First Baptist Church in Rogersville; and

Whereas, since that happy day, Kenneth and Jeneve Constable have witnessed with pleasure the growth of their mutual trust and understanding, qualities which continue to endear them to one another with each passing year; and

Whereas, proud parents and devoted grandparents, Kenneth and Jeneve Constable have relished every moment they have spent nurturing their four daughters and sons-in-law, Teresa and Clint Weidman, Lisa and Brian Lowe, Latisha and Aaron Trone, and Melissa and Brad Cooksey; and their seven grandchildren, Dani and Dillon Weidman, Gavin and Gabriayle Lowe, and Landon, Jordan, and Mason Trone; and

Whereas, now retired, Kenneth and Jeneve Constable are kind and caring individuals who have worked hard and willingly invested many hours of love and labor into their family, church, and community; and

Whereas, Kenneth and Jeneve Constable often reflect upon the joys and rewards they have experienced during their forty years of marriage and look forward to beginning their fifth decade of wedded success and happiness:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations to Kenneth and Jeneve Constable at this significant milestone in their marriage, and in wishing them only the very best as they continue to walk hand-in-hand along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Constable, as a measure of our esteem for them.
